Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-27 are, drawn to a table system for extracting blood from an animal fetus having a placenta, classified in class 452, subclass 194.
- II. Claims 28-39 and 41 are, drawn to a method for extracting blood from an animal fetus, classified in class 452, subclass 194.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another and materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, the method steps of "securing a placenta against a planar first face, massaging the placenta against the first face, suspending the animal fetus such that the fetus drains at least a portion of blood" can be practiced by hand, or someone could hang the placenta and fetus from a gambrel.

IF THE APPLICANT ELECTS GROUP I, THEN THE FOLLOWING ELECTION OF SPECIES REQUIREMENT IS APPLICABLE.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

Species IA as claimed in claims 1-12.

Species IB as claimed in claims 13-27.

The species are independent or distinct because Species IA does not claim the particulars of Species IB such as "means for securing the placenta of the animal fetus substantially flat against the first face of the first panel".

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, there are no claims which are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

IF THE APPLICANT ELECTS GROUP II, THEN THE FOLLOWING ELECTION OF SPECIES REQUIREMENT IS APPLICABLE.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

Species IIA as claimed in claims 28-37.

Species IIB as claimed in claims 38, 39 and 41.

The species are independent or distinct because Species IIA includes claim language directed to the steps of pushing the placenta onto a plurality of spaced spikes projecting from the first face, in that, Species IIB does not includes the particulars of this claim language.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, there are no claims which are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.
MPEP § 809.02(a).

A telephone call was made to Dana Tangren on 02-19-2006 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Thomas Price whose telephone number is 571-272-6892. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F from 6:30a.m. to 3:00p.m..
